“The People of Clarendon County” – A Play by Ossie Davis, & the Answer to Racism!

Based on the book edited by journalist and Aesthetic Realism Associate Alice Bernstein

Hear Alice Bernstein (formerly from Masaryk Towers), tell of conversations with beloved actor/activist Ossie Davis and of “unearthing” his 1955 Civil Rights play which, with his encouragement, is published with essays on the education that can end racism: Aesthetic Realism, founded by Eli Siegel. With Dr. Jaime R. Torres, Allan Michael, and Dr. Arnold Perey

See the play about black parents in the South who risked death to fight for “equal” education—performed by actors Kevin Hardy, Jill Chenault, and Lawrence Floyd from Around the Block/Al Doblar La Esquina
Directed by Laurence Holder

With DeWitt Church Gospel Singers

Experience the Aesthetic Realism Teaching Method as educator, Monique Michael (born in Haiti) gives an interactive first grade lesson on diversity in birds and people. See why this method brings out every child’s true intelligence and ends prejudice in the classroom.
